Projects

Digit-Recognizer

Made a neural network that is trained on the MNIST dataset. It can take handwritten digits in a 28 x 28-pixel format and recognize which digit has been written. It has a 98% accuracy. Python libraries used are Sklearn, Matplotlib, NumPy, and Pandas.

Website Log Book

Made a website with a textbox where users could type anything and it would be permanently displayed on the website as a logbook. Used MongoDB as a Database, React for the front end, Nodejs for the backend, and Express to connect the front end to the back end.

Snake Game

Made the classic game, the Snake with a high score counter and a minimalistic color pattern. Used the turtle GUI library in Python to make the game.
